

American Golden Plover (Pluvialis dominica).

An adult 'lesser golden plover' in Pegwell on June 12th 1997 defied specific identification and we had to await an adult in full summer plumage in Pegwell from June 1st–5th 2008 for the first confirmed record for the recording area.