

Balearic Shearwater (Puffinus mauretanicus). Three on Aug 5th 1972 was the first report of birds considered at that time to be of the Western Mediterranean race of Manx Shearwater. There have been ten records since; singles on May 22nd 1982, Aug 4th 1984, July 31st and Aug 19th 1986, July 16th 1995, June 29^{tr} 2000, June 22nd and Sep 5th 2008, Sep 9th 2011 and two on Nov 11th 2013. Balearic Shearwater was elevated to full-species status in the mid-1980's.