

Black Stork (Ciconia nigra).

One circled just inland of the Estate for several minutes before disappearing W/SW on July 4th 2007 and a first summer bird was seen over Stonar on July 19th 2008, having being seen the previous day at Chartham and Seaton.