

Little Bittern (Ixobrychus minutus). 1964 was an exceptional year for this species. After an adult male was picked up exhausted near Deal on May 4th another was present on the Hundred Acre Field from May 23rd to 29th.