

Sociable Plover (Chettusia gregaria).

A first winter bird present from Sep 28th to Nov 18th 1968 spent much of its time with small parties of Lapwing in the Lydden Valley but during the first few weeks of its stay it roosted alone on the golf course. A critically endangered species globally, will we ever see another?